BRITISH BIOGRAPHY OF VERDI.

A Paris paper gives the following sketch of Verdi's career: Giuseppe Verdi was the son of an inn-keeper of the village of Roncole, in the Duchy of Parma, where he was born in 1813. He received his first lessons in music from an obscure organist, who was, however, an enthusiast for his art. Thanks to the patronage of Antonio Barezzi, he was able to go to Milan, where he studied from 1833 to 1835, under the direction of Lavigna, who was then at the head of the theater of La Scala. At last, in 1840, he brought out his first opera, "Oberto di San Bonifazio." Encouraged by its success he brought out, soon afterward, a comic opera, "Un Giorno di Regno," which was a complete failure. From 1843 to 1847 he wrote and had performed the following operas: "Nabucco," "I Lombardi," "Ernani," "Il Duca di Mantova," "Glorianna d'Aro," "Alzira," "Attila," "Macbeth," and "Mammoth." From 1848 to 1853 he wrote the "Coronations," "La Battaglia di Leg-nano," "I Tre Fratelli," "Rigoletto," "Il Trovatore," and "La Traviata." In June, 1855, he gave to the world the grand opera, "Les Vespres Siciliennes," a work written especially for the principal French stage.
Signor Verdi, in seventeen years, has written not less than twenty operas, without counting "Aroldo," "Simone Boccanegra," "Una Ven-detta in Domino," and "King Lear," which he has just finished.

MACAULAY AS A TALKER.

The London News, in an obituary notice of Macaulay, makes these remarks: "As a talker his powers were perhaps unequalled. It was there that he showed what he could do without the preparation which might, if it did not, insure the splendor of his essays and his oratory. At the dinner table he poured out his marvellous eloquence with a rapidity equalled only by that of his friend Hallam's utterance. He talked much, if at all, and thus it was found that it did not answer very well to invite him with Jeffrey and Sidney Smith, in conversation. Sydney Smith could not without anxiety. Both had had three years of full liberty (for they did not interfere with each other) during Macaulay's absence; but he eclipsed both on his return. After some years, when his health and spirits were declining, and his expectations began to merge in consciousness of failure, he sometimes sat quiet on such occasions, listening or lost in thought, as might happen."

STRENGTH OF MONEY AT THE FEDERAL CAPITAL.

A correspondent, writing from Washington, says: "Washington City is at a deluge pecuniarily. I am told that no merchant can get $500 from bank here, for the very simple reason that the banks haven't got any money. The banks have invested all their money in postoffice drafts, and there is no appropriation until there is a Speaker. But that money is scarce here is undeniably true.
Everybody who wants it has more than the usual difficulty in getting it. It is said that Globevanner, the Sergeant-at-Arms, has advanced members the sum of $90,000, expecting to be repaid when the Speaker can sign warrants. But the $90,000 have broken him, and he shows a blank face and an empty purse to all applicants. But this is one fact about the tightness of money, which may be remarked as a sign of the times."

THE FRENCH ARMY IN ITALY.

A letter from Rome says: "The French army presents at this moment a noble spectacle. Touched by the misery which exists there, it has resolved on materially aiding the poor of the Eternal City. Each officer gives five francs a month for the needy, and in every kitchen each soldier is ordered to give a penny to the poor.
An Englishman named Isaac Dalton, who previously consulted his Government, he has pointed out to him by the presidents of the fourteen districts who are too reticent to ask for help. He has had a list of them made, and distributes to them every day meat, soup, and two pounds of bread apiece.

FALLING OF A MEMPHIS SLAVE MART.

TWO NEGROES KILLED, AND FOUR BADLY WOUNDED.
On Friday last a portion of the slave mart at Memphis, Forrest, Jones & Co., in Memphis, Tenn., fell with a terrible crash, and six negroes, who were in the building, were buried beneath the huge pile of rubbish. Two of them were taken out dead and horribly mangled, and the other four badly wounded. One or two of the latter, have received injuries which will prove fatal.

DEATH OF THE ENGLISH "TALKING FISH."

The London Times of the 27th ult. says: This curious performer has died. Soon after the hard weather set in it began to give indications of being "out of sorts," and was very ill for three days previous to its death, being unable to perform. The loss will be a heavy one to the proprietor, as he was deriving a good income from its exhibition, and not long since was offered by a speculator the sum of £1,500 for it.

PERSONS FROZEN TO DEATH IN FRANCE.

In the South of France the weather has been so severe that a sentinel was found dead of cold in his sentry-box at Lyons. Several persons have perished in the snow in the mountains of Dauphine, where they imprudently ventured in pursuit of game. Two boys, of eight and ten years of age, died from cold while returning from school.

FATAL ACCIDENT FROM A FALLING TREE.

An accident which happened in the Champs Elysees has produced a commotion in Paris. A tree fell across the road, it is supposed loosened by the thaw, just as the Passy omnibus was passing, killing the conductor and a passenger, and mortally wounding M.
Hubel, the private secretary of Prince Napoleon.

ROYAL APPOINTMENT.

A Munich letter announces that the King of Bavaria has just appointed Baron Liebig President of the Academy of Sciences, in place of the venerable M. Tiersch, who resigned the office on account of his great age. The learned Baron has just addressed a long letter to Mr. Meckl on the subject of sewerage.

ARMY IN ITALY.

The Milan Gazette of the 20th announces that two dragoons in the Duke of Modena's service have just been arrested at Mirandola. They had 3,000 twenty-franc pieces in their possession, and several letters proving that they were to organize a reactionary movement.

A PARO BANK THE BASIS OF A NEWSPAPER.

The Albany (N. Y.) Statesman says that Geo. Wilkins Kendall established the New Orleans Picayune with $700, which he won at a faro bank in New York. The Picayune people will doubtless deny this story as soon as they see it in print.

THE ONLY REMEDY.

That was a wag who said: "When my wife was very sick, I called in an Allopathic physician; but she got no better. I then called in a Homeopathic one, and she died. One day he broke his leg, and could not come at all, then she got well."

A PROBABLE IMPROVER.

The brother of the celebrated John Brown, of Harper's Ferry celebrity, has arrived in Paris. The object of his presence there is to advocate the cause which his gallant brother so nobly defended.
He is doubtless an improver.

AN EX-WEIGHT.

An ex-weight, 3,435 pounds, said to be the largest ever raised in this country, was exhibited on Tuesday in New York.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

Five Days Later from Europe.

ARRIVAL OF THE ANGLO-SAXON.

PORTLAND, MAINE, JANUARY 19.—The steamship Anglo-Saxon, from Liverpool at two P.
M. on the 4th inst., via Queenstown the 5th inst., arrived at this port at 10:45 A. M. today. Her mails leave for Boston this evening, and will be due at New York at five P. M. on Friday.

The steamship Edinburgh sailed for New York in company with the Anglo-Saxon.
The steamship Peria reached Liverpool at three P. M. on the 31st.

The steamship Nova Scotia, from Portland, arrived at Queenstown on the morning of the 4th.

Stormy weather had again visited the English coast, causing much damage to the shipping.

The ship Britannia, of Bath, Maine, from Savannah for Liverpool, which was telegraphed on Queenstown per Europa, was driven ashore and had become a wreck.

Barmonth, the Captain, and a portion of the crew were saved. The cargo was being saved.
The bark Richard Tansley which cleared from New York, September 23, for Liverpool, had not been heard from.

The ship Peria from Liverpool, which put into Fayal leaky, had released half her cargo when she caught fire and was out drift.
Some tugs made ineffectual efforts to beach her, but the vessel was carried off by the tide and was not afterwards seen. The supposition is that she was totally destroyed.

A large ship, supposed to be the America, was riding at anchor January 2, near Firewood, with all her masts cut away.

The ship Britannia from Liverpool for New York, had put back.

The Lawson, from Leghorn for Boston, put into Gibraltar, December 22, leaking, and would discharge.

The Lucy Atwood, for Boston, was struck by ice, December 8, which washed the Captain overboard, swept decks, &c. She was abandoned in a sinking condition. Fourteen of the crew were rescued and landed at Deal.

The London Times says that the present appearance indicates that the contemplated European Congress will not take place. Other authorities say nearly the same thing, but the statement lacks confirmation.

Lord Macaulay was to be buried in Westminster Abbey.

Napoleon made a brief address at the diplomatic reception on New Year's day.

Later news from India says that 2,000 rebels and their leader had been made prisoners in Oude.

Sales of Cotton on Tuesday and Wednesday, Monday being a holiday, in the Liverpool market, were 10,000 bales, of which speculators and exporters took 2,500. Market closed steady, and with rather better tone.

New York Items.

New York, January 19.—Christopher P.
Hewell, Teller in the Market Bank, committee on the subject of the New York City Committee, was yesterday by taking strychnine.
He was twenty-five years old and had been married about a year.

A collision occurred on the Hudson River Railroad. Express train from Albany and the Sing Sing train, both going one way. The rear car of the express train was smashed.
Ten or twelve passengers were more or less injured, and one passenger, Mr. Thomas H.
Field, killed.

Mrs. Field, late Miss Anna Tuttle, was one of the pupils of the public schools in Brooklyn, in Kingston, Ulster County, and was just started on her bridal tour to the South.

Mr. James W. Horton, who was conversing with Mrs. Field at the moment of the accident, was thrown over the bank into the river, falling on the ice. He was but slightly injured.

The accident happened in the same way as that on the Harlem Road yesterday morning.
The express train having been compelled to stop on the road for some purpose while the Sing Sing cars were too close behind to be stopped in season. Bishop McCloskey, of Albany, is among the seriously injured. Eight of the injured were left at Terrytown, and the remainder brought to this city. Of the Bank Note List, had both legs broken.

Mrs. Schermer, of Willets, head badly hurt.
Mr. B. L. Irwin, of Fulton, N. Y., badly injured. Mrs. Irwin, wife of the above, slightly hurt.

The Convention of Manufacturers, held at Meriden, Conn., yesterday, resulted in a split and the organization of two conventions of about equal size, one having a Republican and the other a Democratic complexion. Each party adopted a series of resolutions of a Union and conservative character. Mr. Calhoun, of Bridgeport, presided over the bolters' convention.
